

Christian Service Center for Central Florida, Inc.
Boiler Plate

The Christian Service Center for Central Florida is a private nonprofit social service agency that engages the Central Florida community to prevent homelessness, combat poverty, cultivate self-sufficiency and restore hope by providing those in need with programs designed to meet physical, emotional and spiritual needs without regard to race, religion, gender or national origin. Since 1971, the Christian Service Center has served millions of men, women and children from three locations in Downtown Orlando, West Orange County and Winter Park.

As one of Central Florida's oldest interdenominational ministries, the Christian Service Center maintains its distinguished reputation for impacting lives, in partnership with over 7,000 local supporting churches, businesses, civic organizations, foundations and individuals. www.christianservicecenter.org
