

History The Christian Service Center was founded in 1971 by [the former Orange County Association of Churches] First Presbyterian Church of Orlando, First United Methodist Church of Orlando, Cathedral Church of St. Luke, St. James Cathedral and Trinity Lutheran Church to provide direct assistance for individuals and families facing critical need. For almost 40 years, the Christian Service Center has served the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the Central Florida community and has maintained a distinguished reputation for preventing homelessness and impacting lives. Today, the Christian Service Center is supported by 7,000 local churches, businesses, civic organizations, foundations and individuals.
